FOR SCHOOL LEADERSHIP AND ACADEMIC COORDINATORS

ONE TEACHER ABSENT. HOW MANY DECISIONS?

Managing substitutions shouldn't disrupt the school day.

THE PROBLEM

Every absence creates a chain of decisions.

Coordinators handle this every day. Each step depends on the one before it.

01 Checking multiple timetables

02 Finding genuinely available teachers

03 Avoiding double-bookings

04 Distributing duties fairly

05 Managing last-minute changes

06 Maintaining substitution records

An available teacher is not necessarily an available substitute.

A TEACHER WHO LOOKS FREE

Teacher K
Not on the absence list.
Seems available.

BUT IN PERIOD 4

P1	P2	P3	P4	P5	P6	P7	P8

Teaching Class 9A.
Not a conflict-free substitute.

Structure makes the chain easier to manage.

THE SOLUTION

Bring structure to substitution management.

Select absent teachers. Review suggestions. Print the roster.
